

Plural or Possessive Showdown

Sara found four kittens in the basket.

The flower's petals are pink and soft.

The tree's bark is rough and scratchy.

Her classroom has three computers.

Have you returned your books to the library yet?

One of the book's pages was torn in three places.

On Arbor Day we planted fifteen trees in my yard.

Chris's dog Rover is very clever.

The church's front door was made of stained glass.

We have five churches in our city.

The radio's signal became weaker as we drove away.

Students may not bring radios to school.