

Brian's Winter

Author: Gary Paulsen

Reading Level: 6.5

Points: 6.0

1. What happened when Brian kicked the bear?
 - a. It scooped Brian up with a paw and flung him away.
 - b. It grunted and ran away.
 - c. It growled and chased him around the fire.
 - d. It slowly backed away from Brian.
2. Why did Brian decide he needed to create a stronger bow?
 - a. The gun was broken and he needed protection from large animals.
 - b. He wanted to go hunting for a moose.
 - c. His old bow broke and he decided to replace it with a stronger one.
 - d. He wanted to hunt for the bear and kill it before it returned to the camp.
3. What did Brian use to create the arrowhead for his new bow?
 - a. Flint
 - b. Bone
 - c. Steel
 - d. Iron
4. How did the pack of wolves help Brian?
 - a. They killed a deer and he ate the remains.
 - b. They howled at night and warned him of danger.
 - c. They led him away from danger.
 - d. They chased off the bear when it was about to attack.
5. Who was Betty?
 - a. A skunk
 - b. A moose
 - c. A bear
 - d. A chipmunk
6. How did Brian escape from the bear the second time?
 - a. The skunk sprayed the bear in the face.
 - b. The moose chased away the bear.
 - c. Brian defended himself with his new bow and arrow.
 - d. Brian ran down to the water and jumped into the lake.

7. How did Brian survive the extremely cold weather?
 - a. He sewed animal skins together to make warm clothing.
 - b. He stayed in his shelter and didn't come out.
 - c. He found warm clothing in his supply bag.
 - d. He made warm clothing by sewing the leaves of a special plant.

8. What gave Brian the idea of making snowshoes?
 - a. Watching a rabbit run on the snow
 - b. Thinking about a book he had read
 - c. Watching the bear walking through snow
 - d. Watching animals walk on ice

9. What caused the trees to make loud popping noises?
 - a. It was so cold they were freezing and exploding.
 - b. Branches were snapping off the trees and falling on the ground.
 - c. Animals were breaking limbs off the trees.
 - d. The trees were rubbing together and creating loud noises.

10. How did Brian's ordeal end?
 - a. Brian discovered a trapper and his family living nearby.
 - b. A plane flew overhead and saw his signal fire.
 - c. He was rescued after fixing the broken radio.
 - d. His parents hired searchers who eventually found him.