It's Do Something Nice Day! How can you brighten someone's day today? Sometimes little things mean a lot, so try to do at least seven nice things today, no matter how small, and write about them in the clouds.

Do Something Nice Day!

A collection of seven empty, white cloud shapes with black outlines, arranged in a grid-like pattern. The clouds are of various sizes and are intended for students to write their 'nice things' in.
