

United States Government

Directions: Cut the cards apart. Sort them to show the relationships between the branches of government and their functions.

United States Government	Judicial Branch
Legislative Branch	Executive Branch headed by the President	headed by Supreme Court headed by Congress	branch that carries out and enforces the laws branch that decides the meanings of the the laws	branch that makes the laws
House of Representatives	Senate