Do your students have trouble writing interesting sentences? If so, teach them how to jazz up their sentences with vivid vocabulary as they expand these summer-themed sentences. This freebie was created to go with Sentence Go Round, a cooperative learning activity that kids love! That product includes complete directions, printables, prepared task cards, and blank task cards to create your own sentences. Click the image below to find it in my TpT store.

The first page in this freebie has task cards with summer sentences about nature or weather. The second page has sentences based on summer activities. The last two pages are B&W versions of the task cards.

If you enjoy this set, check out the other three seasonal sentence-starter freebies!
